

AN ALTERNATE LECTIONARY

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This lectionary provides a one-year cycle of five readings for each Sunday and of the Christian Year according to the Prayer Book Society of Canada's 2025 publication The Lectionary of 1662, Adapted and Supplemented. Multiple sets of lessons are assigned for Christmas Day and Easter Day. Also included are sets of readings for all other Prayer Book Principal Feasts and Holy Days (Red-Letter Days). Lessons for Ember Days, Rogation Days, National Days, and Commemorations (Black-Letter Days) are appointed as well.

Readings from the Apocrypha are in italics. It is appropriate to conclude readings from the Apocrypha with "Here ends the Reading."

The Bishop of the Diocese is to be consulted where this alternate lectionary is desired to be used. When strict conformity to the two-lesson format, as in the 1662 BCP, is desired to be followed, the Epistle and Gospel are used. In some cases, the First Lesson is the traditionally appointed Epistle, whereby it is indicated it should be used in place of the Epistle by way of the lesson being underlined.

The first psalm, indicated with the letter "I", is intended to be an "introit", or an opening song for the beginning of the service. The second psalm, indicated by "G", is a shorter "gradual", intended to be used between lessons. These are usually chosen in accordance with the 1962 Canadian BCP.

Occasionally, the collects appointed to be used in The Lectionary of 1662 differ greatly from those found in the 2019 BCP. Some of those collects can be found elsewhere in the BCP, which will be noted by an asterisk and a citation beneath the Name of the Sunday/Holy Day. Other times, the collect is provided in the Alternate Collects section provided after the Lectionary Chart.

Amen.
